

England Men's Senior Team Head Coach

We are currently overseeing a highly targeted process to appoint the next Head Coach of the England Men's Senior Team.

Our succession planning process has already identified a number of candidates; in addition to this we are committed to open recruitment processes in the football industry and are interested in hearing from individuals who meet the following criteria:

THE ROLE

- Lead and develop the England senior men's team to win a major tournament and be consistently ranked as one of the top teams in the world.
- Provide inspiring leadership to a world class, multi-disciplinary technical team based at St. George's Park.
- Develop and maintain strong relationships with clubs who employ English qualified players.

THE SUCCESSFUL CANDIDATE

- Will hold a UEFA Pro License.
- Will have significant experience of English football, with a strong track record delivering results in the Premier League and/or leading international competitions.
- Will be an exceptional leader who understands and will enjoy the international football environment.
- Will be experienced in successfully identifying, managing and developing English qualified players.
- Will be highly resilient and comfortable in a very high-profile role with intense public scrutiny.
- Will have a track record of creating a high performing, positive team culture and environment.
- Will have strong personal values and integrity and understand and embrace the role that the England Men's Senior Team Head Coach has inspiring the nation.

OUR VALUES

Aim HIGH | Achieve TOGETHER | Embrace DIFFERENCE

Should you want to register your interest and you meet the criteria above, please do this via email to careers@thefa.com
This is a shared address, and should you meet all the criteria you will receive a response.